- (e) whether complete information is not provided for admission in new IIMs after releasing the marks of joint entrance exam;
- (f) if so, the details thereof; and
- (g) the steps taken/being taken by the Government in this regard?

A N S W E R

MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT
(SHRI RAMESH POKHRIYAL 'NISHANK')

(a) to (c): There are seven new IIMs established at Amritsar, Bodh Gaya, Nagpur, Sirmour, Sambalpur, Visakhapatnam & Jammu. At present, there is no more proposal to set up any new IIM. There are no shortage of faculty in the seven new IIMs.

(d): In general, teacher – student ratio in IIMs is 1:10. However, the ratio keeps on varying, inter – alia, due to change in the number of students intake.

(e) to (g): No Sir. Complete information related to admission process in new IIMs is provided on their respective websites.
